

MY HAPPY HOUR

This Project is focus on encourage our students to improve speaking skills through talking about what makes him / her happy taking into account that our students didn't speak fluently or freely because they feel afraid of their partners jokes, many of them are shy and nervous about expressing themselves in front of the people.

We develop this Project in class and On Wednesdays some of our students talk about his/ her happy hour in front of the school.

